AND STILL WE RISE

“Just like moons and like suns,
With the certainty of tides,
Just like hopes spring high,
Still [UVI must rise]”

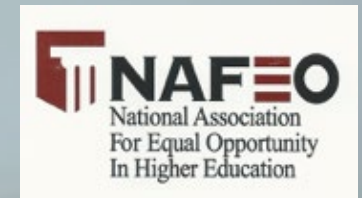

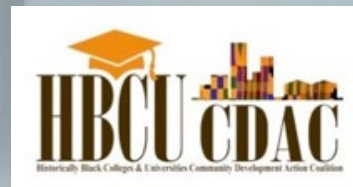

Maya Angelou

UVI RISING!

From the depth of destruction from the hurricane winds and floods of Irma and Maria, UVI Must Rise! The storms' wrath severely disrupted academic operations of the UVI campus. Thousands of residents lost employment and access to other resources provided by the University, its faculty, staff and students. Rebuilding UVI is essential to rebuilding the Virgin Islands.

UVI WILL RISE AND REBOUND WITH YOUR SUPPORT

Please join NAFEO, the HBCU Community Development Action Coalition and Black Wealth 2020 by contributing to the UVI Rising on #GIVINGTUESDAY, November 28, 2017, the day we ask those who believe in the transformational power of education to contribute so that the UVI will RISE.
